The Mission of AAUW is to advance equity for women and children through advocacy, philanthropy, education and research. The national organization awards over $3 million per year for fellowships and doctoral grants for women.

Our Loveland branch awards graduate scholarships to local women to help them break through the educational barriers. Last year we awarded 4 scholarships and our goal is to raise enough funds to award 4 again this year.

All proceeds from this event will benefit our scholarship fund.

The Authors

Kaia Anderson is an award-winning author and champion of justice, an analytical thinker and a healer at heart. The survivor of one of Colorado's most notorious stalking cases, she's a vocal advocate of legislative reform and has been instrumental in strengthening the state's stalking law and crime victim rights. Her memoir, Trial by Fire: A Personal Journey of Consciousness, Power & Freedom, is a Foreword INDIES Book of the Year winner and reading selection in higher education programs. Charlotte Hinger, a native of Kansas is a historian with a MA in history, a novelist and non fiction author of contemporary historical issues in the rural West. She began writing in her elementary years. Charlotte's mystery books are part of the Lottie Albright series. Her 2017 book, Fractured Families, was a finalist for the Colorado Book Award for mysteries and Come Spring, an historical novel, won the Medicine Pipe Award from the Western Writers of America. Ms. Hinger says she is convinced that mystery writing and historical investigation go hand in hand. For more information, visit www.charlottehinger.com
