

AAUW – MINUTES OF Meeting: October 27, 2025

Lennie introduced the speaker, Kara Kir, Director of Parks and Recreation since 2023. In the profession 21 years,

Changes due to elimination of sales tax on food – 10% less money overall.

Parks and Recreation reduced by 33%

A legal opinion states that unattended swim-at-your-own-risk beaches are illegal.

No more new playgrounds

No fixing tennis courts or pickleball courts.

Business Meeting

Budget presented and passed unanimously with amendments. Add $200 for State Meeting next spring. Add $200 for speakers' fees.

Changes

Dues are no longer due in June. Now it is on member's anniversary date. Members can pay online.

Annual Meeting in April.

Officers:

VP of programs

Secretary

Treasurer -pays bills. Teri has been doing this for consecutive terms. Must have a replacement.

Executive Board not Board of Directors.

Budget to be presented at April Annual meeting.

Lennie stated that the proposed national amendment concerning eliminations of post graduate education was voted down.

Discussion of Annual State Meeting in Spring to celebrate the 100th Anniversary. Our branch will have a table with a trifold. Martha is our Historian. Linda French will serve as the artist.

Officers will be elected in April. Can have co-officers. Good mentoring opportunity.

Work being done on Website. Karen, Tori and Dee. Making it look more professional. Last names will not be used on the public portion of the website. They will appear in the members only section. Remember: Equity!4all

The website changes are taking a bit longer since we are using a free Word Press program.

Public Policy Committee:

Susan Jackson, Karla, Jean, Tori.

Holiday meeting. No November meeting. Charity is Child Safe on Friday December 12 at 4:00 p.m.

Claudia is coordinating and must receive RSVP.

Child Safe can use cash, not mittens.

They also have Amazon wish list.

Potluck after tour will be at Mona's home. Bring dish to pass and a beverage.

No information on Joanne after auto accident.

Anne Marie had open heart surgery.

Meeting adjourned.